PRAISE YOUR WIFE.

Praise your wife, man, do, for pity's sake, give her a little encouragement. You may be assured it won't hurt her. She has made your house comfortable, your hearth bright and shining, your food agreeable; for pity's sake tell her you thank her, if nothing more. She don't expect it. It will make her eyes open wider than they have been for these ten years, but it will do her good for all that, and you too.

There are many women to-day thirsting for the word of praise, the language of encouragement. Through summer's heat, through winter's cold, they have drudged uncomplainingly, and so accustomed have their fathers, brothers and husbands become to their momentous labors, that they look for and upon them as they do the daily rising of the sun and its daily going down.

Homely, every-day life may be made beatiful by an appreciation of its very homeliness. You are aware that if the floor is clean, manual labor has been performed to make it so. You know that if you can take from your drawer a clean shirt whenever you want, that somebody's fingers have ached in the toil of making it so fresh and agreeable, so smooth and so lustrous. Every thing that pleases the eye and the sense has been produced by constant work, much thought, great care and untiring efforts, bodily and mental.

It is not that many men do not appreciate these things and feel a glow of gratitude the nuberless attentions bestowed upon them in sickness and in health, but they are so selfish in that feeling. They don't come out with a hearty, "Why, how pleasant you make things look, wife!" or, "I'm obliged to you for taking so much pains." They thank the tailor for giving them "fits;" they thank the man in a full street car who gives them a seat; they thank the young lady who moves along in the concert room; in short, they thank everybody and everything out of door, because it is the custom, and come home, tip their chairs back and heels up, pull out the newspaper, grumble if wife asks them to take the baby, scold if the fire has gone down, or, if everything is just right, shut their mouths with an air of satisfaction, but never say, "I thank you."

I tell you what, men, young and old, if you did but show an ordinary civility toward those common articles of housekeeping, your wives, if you give them the one hundred and sixtieth part of the compliments you almost choked them with before they were married—if you would stop the badinage about who you were going to have when number one is dead (such things wives may laugh at, but they sink deep sometimes)—if you would cease to speak of her faults, however banteringly, before others, fewer women would seek for other sources of happiness than your apparently cold, so-soish affection.

Praise your wife, then, for all the good qualities she has, and you may rest assured that her deficiencies are fully counterballanced by your own.

WHERE SALT COMES FROM

The sea depends on the disintegration of rocks on lands for its saltness. It does not originate in oceans and seas. Rains wash it and hold it in solution as particles are liberated by violence, decomposition, and gradual action of many natural forces. All streamlets and rivers, therefore, are constantly transporting salt to the sea. If there is more than can be held in solution, then it accumulates in masses at very deep points, which, in the revolutions to which matter is subjected, may again be a stratum of salt somewhat remote from where the mass was formed. Thus the salt mines of Poland and the vast horizontal beds of pure salt in Texas, as well as that mountain of rock salt in St. Domingo, were collected at the botom of ancient seas which are now dry land remote from water.

There are places in Africa where the process of disintergration of salt from rocks is regularly going on, but there is not water power enough to force it onwardly to the sea. Hence the particles are spread abroad and mixed up with soil. The negroes of Kalliul in Northern Africa, having discovered its distribution where there is no water to dissolve it in the ground, leach it. In that way they seperate the salt. By evaporating the water holding it in solution, an excellent article for domestic purposes is produced.

Salt pervades the earth. It exists in the grasses and most vegetable products on which animals feed. In that way they derive enough in most countics to meet the demands of their nature. They require as much as civilized humanity. With them salt is necessary, as with ourselves, for keeping the organs of vission in a good condition. Stop the supply and blindness would be universal.

In Louisville, Ky., they have 25,000 colored people. They have nine churches belonging to the various denominations—three Babtist, three Methodist, one Presbyterian, one Cumbellite and one Roman Catholic. Rev. Dr. Norton, out of his own private means, is erecting a neat Episcopal church for the freedmen.

The "Lucy furnace" at Pittsburg, is the largest in the United States, and produces about 580 tons of pin iron annually.

HOW TO HELP MATTERS.

The business of the whole Mississippi valley is paralyzed at present, and the generally accepted explanation of this prevailing stringency in financial matters is, the low price of produce. We are told that at the ruling prices farmers cannot afford to sell their grain, because it has cost more to produce the crop than it will bring in the market. Accordingly the farmer, who has been buying his supplies of the merchant on credit, holds on to his produce with the hope of being able to realize a better price for it in the spring, but in order to do so he must continue to owe the merchant, who, in turn, finds himself thereby unable to meet the demands made upon him by those to whom he is indebted, and wide spread distress is the natural result.

All this, because the farmer thinks he must not lose money on his year's business, no matter how many other people are compelled to suffer in consequence. In short, everybody must be crippled to save the farmer.

Now, there is no moral reason why the tillers of the soil—albeit their occupation is the noblest in the line of human endeavor—should not be governed by the same rules which other business men have found by experience to be the most profitable in the long run. If the merchant buys a stock of goods at high figures, and finds the market declining immediately afterwards, he is never foolish enough to lock up his store and hold his goods in anticipation of an advance. On the contrary he reasons in this wise: I have made an unfortunate investment, and cannot realize as much for my goods as they cost me, but I will realize what I can for them, pay my debts, and buy another stock, hoping to do better next time. He knows that he cannot maintain his credit in business circles unless he is prepared to meet the demands of his creditors without unreasonable delay, and he is therefore willing to lose something through a sacrifice of his goods, because upon the keeping up of his credit depend all his prospects in the future.

It is not likely that the prices of produce will advance very materially in the next four or five months, and the farmer who hoards his crop with the expectation of getting a higher figure is at best depending upon an uncertainty. What good excuse, then, can he urge for not being willing to get what he can now, and by so doing be enabled to pay his just debts and thus help to relieve the general stringency? This is the true way out of our difficulties. The farmers have it in their own hands, and can not only help themselves, but the whole country as well, by acting as the merchant or other business man does under like circumstances.

IN PETTEET, who cut his wife's throat in Chicago, for which he was tried there, convicted to be hung, and obtained a new trial from our merciful Supreme Court, did not jump from the frying pan into the fire when he was sent to Joliet for his new chance for life, he at least did not get from the fire into the frying pan. He was again convicted in Joliet after a two days trial, and the gallows again looms up before him. Perhaps, after all, the Chicago murderers and villains will find a resort to courts and juries in rural districts does not improve their chances of escape from deserved punishment.

THE Retributions of the last campaign are well illustrated in the different fortunes of the more prominent members of the United States Senate. The three members who were the most virulently assailed by the opposition during the last campaign were Morton, Conkling and Cameron. Nothing was too bad for Schurz, Trumbull and their followers to say concerning them. All three of these men have been re-elected, while Trumbull has just had the seal of a signal defeat placed on him, and Schurz may read his fate two years hence in the overthrow of Frank Blair. It is quite possible that the result of the late campaign may teach all political parties that an unrestraining, bitter and unscrupulous opposition is quite as likely to hurt the party who adopts as the one against whom it is waged.

Governor Moses, of South Carolina, recommends that a bonus equal to the State tax on their buildings, land and machinery be granted to all manufactories of cotton and woolen goods established in the State prior to November 1, 1875.

THE SHELLABARGER--HUNT WEDDING.

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

Society has been on the tip-toe of expectation for some weeks past, over the rumors of a marriage contracted between Miss Laura Shellabarger, daughter of Isaac Shellabarger, Esq., of this city, and William Hunt, Esq., of Trenton, New Jersey. Madame Rumor had long been assuring her votaries that the event would certainly take place in the not distant future, but its advance was made doubly sure last week by the issuing of invitations to the auspicious event. Miss Laura, a beautiful brunette, has for several years been a conspicuous belle in the society world, and though her admirers have been numerous, and she has been surrounded by troops of friends, Cupid was so fortunate as to win her hand with this substantial New Jersey gentleman stepped in and carried the beautiful prize from the very presence of the young gentlemen of Decatur.

The marriage ceremony took place at Stapp's Chapel yesterday evening, and although it seemed for twenty-four hours previous that the elements were giving battle in the heavens, and the snow fell in quantities never known here in years past, drifting upon every sidewalk and street almost mountain high, yet a brilliant audience assembled in the church to witness the marriage of one of Decatur's favorite daughters. In front of the altar was an arch handsomely trimmed with heavy festoons of evergreens. From the center of the arch was suspended a marriage bell trimmed with evergreens. Upon the top of the arch was a handsome cross. The couple were attended by Miss Mela Hunt, of Springfield, Ohio, a sister of the groom; Miss Nellie Shellabarger, a sister of the bride, and Miss Emma Paddecord, of Decatur; Lee Pinor, Esq., of Chicago; Oliver McBride, Esq., of Decatur; and John E. Jeffries, Esq., of Philadelphia, the business partner of the groom. The bride wore a magnificent white silk trimmed with bridal flowers, and a very large illusion veil, from out the snowy folds of which her beauty shone as violets from the rifts of snow. The bridesmaids wore white satin dresses and tarletan dresses, while the groom and groomsmen were attired in the conventional full dress, which gentlemen always assume on important occasions.

The Rev. Dr. Stevenson performed the marriage ceremony, using the Episcopal form. The responses of the bride and groom were distinct and clear, indicating to the audience that these young people were cognizant of the responsibilities of their new relation, and were determined to carry them out to the very letter.

After the ceremony at the church, the hospitable mansion of Mr. Shellabarger was thronged with the prominent persons of Decatur society, while the presence of many visitors from abroad showed conclusively that the event was not one of simply local importance. It is needless to say that the generous host and hostess did everything to make their guests happy and comfortable. The supper arrangements were complete, and the guests were, without apparent trouble, satiated with all the delicacies and substantial viands of every clime and season; grapes, various rare fruits, oranges, creams, ices, and every kind of substantial comfort to the inner man were supplied with princely profusion. During the early part of the evening a band commenced the music for the dance, and the gay company enjoyed themselves as only dancers inspired by fine music can.

The bridal presents were of the most varied character, and very valuable, among them a handsome, massive tea set; all kinds of silverware necessary for household or ornamental purposes; bronze clocks; elegant jewelry, watches, chains, and articles of furniture. Everything was valuable and substantial, but we are unable to give the names of the generous donors.

The festivities were kept up to the "wee sma' hours," and until after the bride and groom had taken their departure for their home in Trenton, New Jersey. This journey is not to be completed soon, for Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Washington, and other prominent places are to be visited before Trenton is reached. Mrs. Laura Hunt bears to her new home the kindest wishes of hosts of admiring friends.

GENERAL.

Over 23,000 children in South Carolina do not attend any school.

A Massachusetts State constable stopped the sale of prize candy at a charitable fair in New Bedford, last week, as a palpable violation of the law.

The new Missouri Senator pronounces his name Bo-jee, with the accent on the last syllable. Tom Benton once said his name ought really to be called Bogus.

Already since the beginning of January, have been reported the wreck of sixteen ships, twenty steamers, fourteen barks, twelve brigs and twenty-nine schooners.

A surprising decrease in pauperism in England is shown by the last half-yearly return. This year there is in England and Wales 91,452 fewer paupers than there were last year.

THE franking priviledge is no more. Contrary to all prophecies, the much abused Senate on Wednesday took up and passed the bill abolishing it. There was much flutter, and many protests and threats of bills to increase the compensation of Senators; but the shock passed off, and the country, if it has been serious in all its protests and petitions, ought to draw a long breath of relief.

SPRINGFIELD, January 23.—As the clock struck 12 at noon to-day, the chief executive authority of the State of Illinois, by virtue of its Constitution, was transferred from the control of Richard J. Oglesby, and the duties, responsibilities and emoluments of the office went in charge of Lieutenant Governor John Lee Beveridge, who is now the Governor of Illinois. It will be of interest to the people of Illinois to read the resignation of Gov. Oglesby, which shows the great and abiding faith that great man has in the people whom he represents. It is as follows:

STATE OF ILL., EXECUTIVE DEPARTM'T,
SPRINGFIELD, January 23, 1873.

To the People of the State of Illinois:

I have the honor most respectfully to tender to you my resignation of the office of Governor of the State of Illinois, to take effect at 12 o'clock m. to-day.

Profoundly grateful for the grand honor so recently conferred upon me by the generous people of the State, no ordinary consideration would justify this act or induce me to take this step. Your chosen representatives in the General Assembly of the State have seen fit, in the exercise of the discretion imposed upon them by your suffrages, to choose me to the United States Senate, for the term of six years from the 4th of March next. The same sense of duty which made it obligatory upon me to accept from your hands the office of Governor, I feel justifies the acceptance of the office to which that honorable body has more recently chosen me. I the more cheerfully accept this responsibility, and retire from the office of Governor, conscious that the distinguished gentleman upon whom the duties and powers of the office will fall, who so recently received your hearty indorsement by election to the office of Lieutenant Governor, will prove faithful to the trust imposed upon him, and desire your favor and confidence.

Invoking upon the whole people of the State continued happiness, prosperity and peace, the authority you conferred upon me I formally surrender into your hands, the true and only source of power in this land.

(Signed) R. J. OGLESBY.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 23.—The adjournment of the legislature yesterday for one week affords a respite to the state officers, who have been constantly besieged by members, especially the new ones, asking for information upon all sorts of questions, most of which they could ascertain from printed documents if they would take the trouble to read them.

The ostensible reason for adjournment was to give time for changing the heating and ventillation machinery of the Senate chamber, but in reality it was for the convenience of members who are here and have business at home which they wish to attend to.

NEW ORLEANS, January 23.—The decision of the majority of the Supreme court in the case of the returning boards was made this morning by Justice Howell. The decision is to the effect that the Hawkins-Longstreet board was the legal returning board.

Legislative proceedings uninteresting. Judge Dibble left this evening for Washington, to re-argue the case before the Judiciary Committee again, if Warmoth is permitted to do so.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—A report a of terrible marine disaster last night in the English channel has just been received.

The Northfleet, a London emigrant ship, which sailed from here several days ago for Australia, with four hundred and twelve passengers, exclusive of her crew, collided at midnight, two miles off Dungeness, with an unknown foreign steamship, and was cut to the water's edge. Only eighty-five persons are known to have been saved. It is believed that every other person who was on board has found a watery grave. No attention was paid by the steamship to the emigrant vessel after the collision, and she proceeded on her course, leaving the sufferers to their fate.

Great excitement prevails in the city, and expressions of indignation are heard on every side. But few new facts have been learned. The survivors state that the unknown steamer, after the collision held on her course despite the appeals of those on board the sinking vessel.

The name of the steamer has not yet been ascertained, but it is believed to be a Spanish vessel. The owners of the North Fleet offered a reward of £200 for the identification of the steamer.

THE NEW TAX LAW.

Extension of time for Collection of Taxes.

AN ACT extending the time for the collection of the taxes on the assessments for the year A. D. 1872, and delinquent and omitted taxes on the assessment books of said year.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That sections one hundred and sixty-nine, two hundred and thirty-nine, and two hundred and forty-one, of "An act for the assessment of property, and for the levy and collection of taxes," approved March 30th, 1872, which said numbered sections read as follows:

"SEC. 169. Town and district collectors shall return the tax books and make final settlement for the amount of taxes placed in their hands for collection, on or before the first day of February next after receiving the tax book: Provided, That the county collector may first notify, in writing, the several town or district collectors upon what day within twenty days after the first day of February, they shall appear at his office to make final settlement."

"SEC 239. On or before the twenty-eighth day of February, annually, after he has made settlement with town or district collectors, the county collectors shall make a sworn statement, showing the total amounts of each kind of tax received by him from town or district collectors, and the total amount of each collected by himself, which statement shall be filed in the office of the county clerk."

"SEC. 241. The County Collector shall, on or before the fifth day of March following, pay over to the State Treasurer the taxes in his hands payable to the state treasury, as shown by such settlement."

Shall to the extent, and only so far as the same apply to taxes levied on the assessment of property for the year 1872, or to other taxes required by law to be extended on the tax books with the taxes of said year 1873, be held and are hereby made to read as follows:

SEC. 169. Town and District Collectors shall return the tax books, and make final settlement for the amount of taxes placed in their hands for collection, on or before the the 10th day of March, A. D., 1873; Provided, that the County Collector may first notify, in writing, the several town or district collectors upon what day, within twenty days after the tenth day of March, they shall appear at his office to make final settlement.

SEC. 239. On or before the 10th day of April, A. D., 1873, after he has made settlement with the town or district collectors, the county collector shall make a sworn statement, showing the total amounts of each kind of tax received by him from town or district collectors, and the total amount of each collected by himself—which statement shall be filed in the office of the County Clerk.

SEC. 241. The county collector shall, on or before the fifteenth day of April, A. D., 1873, pay over to the State Treasurer the taxes in his hands payable to the State treasury, as shown by such settlement.

SEC. 2. On and after the sixteenth day of April, A. D. 1873, this act shall cease to be in force and effect, saving, however, all liabilities incurred thereunder; and thereafter sections one hundred and sixty-nine, two hundred and thirty-nine, and two hundred and forty-one, as first recited in section one of this act, and as they appear and read in the act of March 30, 1872, the title of which is given in the title and section one of this act, shall remain in full force and effect, the same as if this act had never been passed.

WHEREAS, The benefit of this act and the relief hereby intended to be afforded to tax payers will be lost unless it takes immediate effect, wherefore an emergency exists, requiring that it shall so take effect; therefore this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 22, 1873.

THE immense influence over the civilized world which the bare moral support of the United States Government exerts became, perhaps for the first time, distinctly apparent when American sympathy with the republican cause in Mexico enabled Juarez to conquer Maximilian and his foreign legions. From the profound impression which the new policy recently foreshadowed at Washington in relation to Cuba seems to have produced on the Cuban patriots in New York and elsewhere, we may expect they will now redouble their efforts to cast off the Spanish yoke. Even in England the intimation of a change in our policy is having its effect. John Bull, whose heart and purse were thus far closed to the cause of Cuban independence, shows evidences of extending to the patriots that material aid, which English love of freedom has so often extended to the revolutionists of Greece, Poland, and other nations.—Inter Ocean.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...Coal, coal, coal.

...How's your cold.

...Coal meeting to-night.

...No church last night.

..Farmers' meeting to-morrow.

...Our police should be uniformed.

...Close times is the universal complaint.

...Trains on the railroads are a little late.

..Bad weather for weddings. Five are reported to have taken place last evening.

..Wonder if we won't have a lively spring election.

...There are some ties which bind men to life, but casual-ties are not of that number.

...They say cider is an antidote for fevers. That will never do. Everybody will be down with fevers and the cider will hardly go round.

...Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the Miller Troupe did not give an entertainment last evening.

...The Bloomington Leader doesn't want the people of that city to be scared about the small-pox.

...Waking up in the middle of a cold night and remembering that the front door isn't locked, is one of the horrors of keeping house.

...The latest patent has been taken out by a railway restaurateur. It is for a patent reversible gutta percha beefsteak, which can be fried and served up four times a day for a year, before it requires renewal.

...A merchant advertised for a clerk "who could bear confinement," and received an answer from one who had been seven years in jail.

...How do you like this kind of weather anyhow?

...Mr. A. O. Miller as "George Duhamel" and Mrs. Miller as "Cora," at the Opera House to-night.

...If you are interested in a coal shaft at this point, be present at the meeting to-night.

...Mr. Miller will appear as "Asa Trenchard," and Mrs. Miller as "Florence Trenchard," in "Our American Cousin" to-night.

...If you are interested in the subject of freights attend the meeting at the court house to-morrow.

...The Carlinville paper says the young men there go into church, sit down, stare all around over the church a few minutes, and if they don't see their girls present, they get up and go out. We've seen 'em do the same thing here, during the sermon too.

...We are informed that some of the men in this city enlivened the dreary hours yesterday by viewing a dog fight. Well, people must have some amusement these dreary days.

..The Street Supervisor is doing a good thing in cleaning the crossings.

...The man who does not clean the snow from his sidewalk neglects a very plain duty.

...Clean the snow from your sidewalk. It will cost you but little, and will greatly please all pedestrians. The snow can be cleaned off easily now, but when it begins to melt your sidewalks will be the cause of a great deal of unnecessary profanity.—By all means clean the snow off your sidewalk.

...A young lady teacher in a Maron Sunday-school, caught a boy smiling last Sunday. Said she, "What are you smiling at, Johnny?" "Nothing, mum," was the answer. "I know better," said the teacher, severely; "now tell me what it was" Johnny looked frightened as he stutteringly said, "I—I s see yer n newspapapers sticking out, mum!" The teacher sat down suddenly and arranged things

Police Doings Yesterday.—Once more our police courts are assuming their former appearance; plenty of prisoners and a large number of charges. Yesterday the following persons appeared at the bar of Justice Albert: John Brown, J. W. Bradfield, Chas. Shuman, and Theodore Monam, charged with being inmates of a house of ill fame. After hearing the evidence the Justice decided that they were guilty, and that each should pay a fine of $10 and costs.

E. M. Kindel paid $3 and costs for a plain drunk.

Mark Moran disturbed the peace $3 worth. Offenders should not allow the snow to interfere with their drunks, fights, etc.

Married.—At the residence of the bride's parents, on Thursday evening, January 23d, by Rev. D. P. Bunn, Mr. T. H. B. BLACKSTONE and Miss MAGGIE BETZER, daughter of Peter Betzer, Esq.

The happy couple left this morning for Baltimore and Washington, where they will spend the honeymoon. The best wishes of their many friends attend them in their journey, which we trust will be but the commencement of a long life of unalloyed happiness.

Attention, Sir Knights.—There will be a special conclave of Beaumanoir Commandery No. 9, K. T., at their Asylum, this (Friday) evening at 7 o'clock sharp, for work on the K. T. Degree.

A punctual attendance is desired.

By order of E. C.

J. S. HAND, Sec'y.

Injured.—We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Samuel, of this city, was seriously hurt in the railroad accident which occurred on the T., W. & W. R. R. near Wabash, Ind., last Tuesday night. The accident was caused by a broken rail, which threw the rear coach and sleeping car from the track, precipitating them down an embankment of ten feet. Nobody was killed, but the conductor, baggage master, and several passengers were injured. We have not learned whether Mrs. Samuel, who was on her way east, was able to resume her journey or not.

Paralysis.—Mrs. Bunn, wife of Rev. D. P. Bunn, had a stroke of paralysis last Tuesday morning, while in bed and alone, her husband being absent from home. She managed to get up, the paralysis extending only to one side, and made a fire in the stove before any one came in. Her little granddaughter came to the house between eight and nine o'clock, and finding the condition of the old lady so alarming at once ran for assistance. Dr. Chenoweth was called in, and under his treatment Mrs. Bunn is slowly improving.

It may be proper to add that Mr. Bunn, who was at Charleston, was expected home on the midnight train, and the little girl who had been staying with Mrs. Bunn during his absence had been sent home in the evening, her grandmother thinking that she would only be alone a few hours longer. Mr. Bunn, however, was delayed, and did not arrive until the next day.

MORE TIME.—The law extending the time for the collection of taxes to the 10th of March, which was approved by the governor on Wednesday, will be found in full in our columns to-day. While we are not in favor of extension or stay laws as a general principle, the necessity for the passage of this bill was so great as to be apparent to everybody, and in common with all our neighbors who are troubled about the little matter of paying taxes we rejoice and are exceeding glad over this measure of relief.

..The Bloomington people are mad just because the boys use the streets and side walks for coasting grounds.

..Remember the "American Cousin" night.

Married—On the evening of the 23d, at the residence of the bride's mother, by Rev. J. E. Moffatt, Mr. J. M. KING and Miss IDA A. BRADY, both of this city.

The St. Nicholas is known to all travelers as well as to our citizens as a splendid hotel. The Laux Bros. keep a good house, feed well, and are obliging to their guests. They run two 'busses, with which to accommodate their guests. When you want a square meal or a good bed go to the St. Nicholas.

The Diamond Glasses,

MANUFACTURED BY

J. E. Spencer & Co., N. Y.,

Which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the world to be the MOST PERFECT, natural, artificial help to the human eye ever known.

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name, "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

THE SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLES on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

They are mounted in the finest manner in frames of the best quality, of all materials, used for that purpose.

THEIR FINISH AND DURABILITY CANNOT BE SURPASSED.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.

Harper's Magazine

Notices of the Press:

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudice or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a special claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

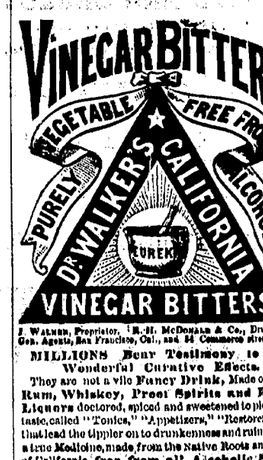
VINEGAR BITTERS



R. WALKER, Proprietor, R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 Commerce Street, N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, in young, old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Vinegar Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No System of Medicine, no vermifuges, no Anthelmintics will free the system from worms, like these Bitters.
